Honoring local artist

Carolyn Walega

at Mid County Library

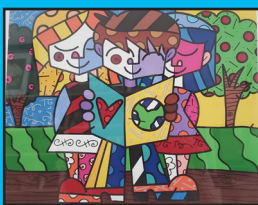

Wednesday, December 1st
from 6:30 – 8:00 PM

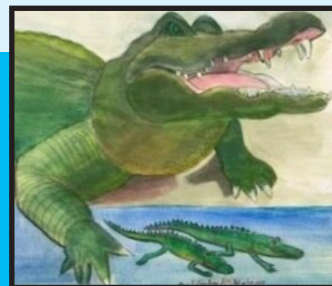

Finding inspiration in our beautiful banana and palm trees, Carolyn began her Florida art life with a one artist show at Lemon Bay

She attributes her fascination with leaves on the brilliantly colored New England leaves of her origins and a specific Picasso-like leaf that fell in her path one fall day.

Today in Florida the leaves she paints are larger, greener, more tropical banana tree leaves and palm fronds. She will draw, erase, design, repeat until finally a composition emerges.

You can learn more about Carolyn and view her unique artwork at carolyn-walega.com.
